Henry Clay
Dec. 10th 1852

Dear Mr. Martin

[Handwritten text begins, possibly discussing political or diplomatic matters, but specific details are not legible due to the condition of the handwriting.]

O'hara's nomination has

[Signature or name, possibly indicating the conclusion of the letter.]
by Sir W. G. We have really nothing but what we have in the letter if it is always a question as to whether the people that so are more likely to come than to differ in their imperial view.

Our papers are very full of the duty of each class, that what I shall be glad to hear any thing you are at liberty to communicate. We shall have no pleasure at all I offer you. Kind regards to the ladies. Your obedient,

[Signature]