Origin of Idolatry.

1. As given by Paul, Rom 1:28:

The divine wrath will be manifested from heaven against all unrighteousness and wickedness of men who through wickedness suppress the truth. For to whom it can be known of God is freely manifested to them. God has manifested himself to them. For what is hid in Him is peculiarly invisible, his eternal power and divinity, even that appears at first when visible is his creatures since the creation of the world, as soon as man be taken ourselves with our inward consciousness to the contemplation of this.
an without exception. They know God indeed, but they honored him not as the Most High God, and gave not thankful to him as such; but they became fools in their speculations and their dull affairs. Sensation was dulled. They became fools, because they pretended to be wise, a subtle subtlety in the place of the glory of the incorruptible God, the image of the form of righteous men.
