1. Venereal diseases – a great societal evil.
2. There are three venereal diseases – syphilis, gonorrhea, and chancroid. Venereal diseases are infectious; they are very prevalent. The Soviet government is waging a resolute battle against venereal diseases; participation in this battle is everyone’s duty. To fight an enemy one must know him; widespread dissemination of knowledge about venereal diseases is a requirement for victory over them.