1. Socialistic development, improvement of women’s labor qualifications, involvement of women in political and social affairs, protection of women and children removes the causes of prostitution