Translation:

1. The patients are advised against getting married.

2. Marriage can worsen the disease and can easily spread it to children. Therefore before the disease is healed, the leper must not get married. Even if cured, they should wait at least two or three years, when their health is completely recovered, before they get married.